GODAWARI DAY HIKE

Trip Overview

Drive to south east, Godawari is Botanical garden it’s a park, right bottom of the Phulchoki moutain, It gets busy with visitors with school kids for educational trip due to verities of plan trees with scientific name tag on it and covers quit big area. Garden is pretty big and well look after. Right above is Marble mining used to get out for use, but not anymore. Start hike right from the park trail leads through dense trees, very nice gentle up hill walking under the Oak and Rhododendron trees, about 1:30hrs walk, half way to Phulcholi now the view beautiful Valley and mountains. Continuing up hill takes to top of the Phulchoki to go Chhap Kharka take a left contour to Chapakharka small Tamang village, dirt road joins here from Kathmandu and another to Panouti, walking along the ridge magnificent view of Himalaya, nice and easy walk to Lakhuri bhanjyang. Then walk down to Thakurgaon, Lubu then drive back Kathmandu.

Gallery

