KAKANI 1900M - 5HRS WALK

Trip Overview

Drive for about 2 hours to get to Kakani, it’s a beautiful, famous picnic spot, many people from Kathmandu come here and the property here own by the NMA Nepal mountaineering association, there is wall climbing. You could get a view of the mountain ranges Langtang, Ganesh Himal, Manasalu, and Annapurna to the west. This hike is more traversing walking in the same elevation through a beautiful forest, it looks like a rain-forest, with a waterfall, with varieties of vegetation get a chance to see wildlife, many species of birds, walking along through a small village, there is a Hindu Temple right middle of the forest, there is a festival in this temple in the summer time, many people mainly from Kathmandu got to worship here. Get to see beautiful views of the North West suburb of Kathmandu city and the mountain ranges to the northeast. Arrive at Guruge Bhanjyang, all of a sudden view changes the valley Trisuli and Langtang and Ganesh Himal mountains ranges. On this hike there are no tea shops or shops, we will provide food pack lunch.

Please get 2 liters of drinking water with you.

We will get a vehicle to drive back to the hotel/home. Driving takes about 1:30 hours to get back in town.