NAGARJUN DANDA- 5HRS WALK

Trip Overview

Drive to the National Park Nagarjun gate, Nagarjuna is a very important deity in Buddhist and Hindu both, It’s a myth that the deity Nagarjun was traveling along and saw KTM was a big lake, Nagarjun thought that if the lake was empty it will be very good residential for people, as he has a supernatural power sword he cut there Chovar mountain its today to the south of the valley and let all the water go out then brought people in they are people today in KTM and he left for his world journey also the Nagarjuna peak believe to be he meditate, we you get to the top there is monastery. It’s a beautiful shot day hike. 3 hours a walk from the bottom through the beautiful forest even its very close to the city you already feel the fresh are walking along the ridge as you go higher view the Kathmandu valley and to the north east west get a big range of Himalayas. Right on top is the view tower which gives you a view the 360degree around. The walk back is all downhill it takes 2 hours to the Gate we get a Vehicle here and drive back to Hotel/home.

As it’s a national park no teashop or shop. We will provide a packed lunch. Please get 2 liters of drinking water with you.